WATER

Antipodes Still Water (1000ml)	$68
On the nose, a gentle mineral suggestion. The champagne like fine bead bubbles shows off the minerality within the water which remains gentle in texture with a refreshing finish.
Antipodes Sparkling Water (1000ml)	$68
Antipodes Water is naturally high in silica which gives a soft, silken texture. Very light in body with a subtle yet noticeable greywacke mineral lift. The finish is refreshing and, like diving into a high altitude mountain lake, awakens the body, mind and palate.
